CORAM: A.P.SHAH J.

Dated 10.6.2005

P.C:

. Heard parties.

. The dispute between the parties was referred to the Loknyalaya and both petitioner and respondents entered into a compromise. The said compromise on translation reads as under:

> " The applicant is hereinafter ready to give (assign) the work on permanent basis to the respondent as per the order of the labour court. The respondent has agreed to the same and the respondent would not claim the amount arrears of difference. Moreover, after the retirement of the respondent on superannuation, the applicant should absorb Sou Sangita Sandip Algude in service in the place of the respondent and the applicant has agreed to the same. We have arrived at the compromise terms willingly before the Loknyalaya held on 8.ll.2003 at Satara. No coercion or force is applied.
